Lions Speech Contest Set For Thursday

The L.G. Lions club annual student speakers contest will be held this week on Thursday at a dinner meeting at 7 p.m. at Club Morocco.

The contest, under the chairmanship of Lion Palmer Svalstad, is the first step of a national competition by which the high school winner will be given a $1,500 scholarship.

After the competition this week, zone competition will be held. It, too, is to be held in Lemon Grove. This contest will be March 15. Winners at that time will go to the District competition, and finally, the Nationals.

Under Lions rules at the club level, contestants are not announced in advance, Svalstad said.

Free L.G. Land Lacks Takers

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Plans for the donation of parts of three streets in the Lemon Grove area to local property owners was held up for two weeks Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors because some owners don't want to pay taxes on the land they would get for nothing.

Involved are strips of land on each side of Skyline, Canton and Lansing drives. The county now has 100-foot rights of way. It is willing to give up 16 feet, eight feet on each side, if property owners will provide easements for San Diego Gas and Electric Co. But some don't want to.

Southland Personnel, Soundness Intact

Suit And Report Are Misleading, Says Davis

A suit filed against Kidder, Peabody & Co. of New York and Southland Savings and Loan Association of La Mesa by a San Diego holding firm was "filed for purposes of publicity" and newspaper accounts of the legal action have been inaccurate and misleading, John A. Davis, founder and chairman of the board of Southland Savings said this week.

Davis pointed out that newspaper accounts of the suit were published without obtaining from Southland officials any comment as to the fact alleged. He said "the complaint is filled with misstatements and distortions if the newspaper reports were correct." The erroneous account was carried in this and other newspapers in S.D. county.

The suit asking $879,750 damages was filed by San Diego Imperial Corp.

In layman's language, the complaint by Imperial is that it owns 255 shares of 2,200 outstanding in Southland Savings and Loan, but was wrongfully left out of the deal when owners of the other 1,945 shares sold their holdings last fall to a holding company formed by banks and other eastern financial interests. San Diego Imperial acquired a number of savings and loan associations in several states by trading its stock to stock holders of the companies it acquires, it was pointed out.

"San Diego Imperial has attempted to acquire control of other associations, but stockholders of Southland are not,

Survey Shows Community Thinking

The journalism class of Mt. Miguel high school performed a grand community service recently when it made a survey of community thinking.

The youngsters personally contacted area residents with a fully professional interview, and the compliments we got on their activities were gratifying.

The project was under the sponsorship of the L.G. Coordinating Council. This was a wise decision by the then President Dr. Dennis McLaughlin. Here, for the first time, was a guide for future activity of local groups.

This prize-winning report from among the scores submitted, was done by Richard Hill of 2655 Grange st., L.G., a journalism student of Mrs. June Mott's journalism class.

This is what the survey showed:

"In a recent poll taken by the Mount Miguel journalism department a majority of the 311 local registered voters polled, 110 men and 201 women, stated that they would not be willing to pay for community fallout shelters.

"The actual question asked was, "Would you be willing to pay $100 per person over a ten-year period for community fallout shelters?"

THE PERCENTAGES STATING YES OR NO WERE:

Yes 45%
No 55%

"In polling, the voters the major remarks for those answering 'yes' was, "It may not do any good, who can really say? But it's better than nothing."

"The 55% answering negatively usually said, "It's stupid; useless; if a bomb were dropped we wouldn't have a chance." Another common remark was, " If an atomic bomb were dropped I wouldn't want to live."

GETTING A FAIR VALUE FOR TAX DOLLAR

"The second question asked was, " Do you feel you are getting a fair value for your tax dollar?"

THE ACTUAL PERCENTAGES WERE:

Yes 52%
No 47%
No opinion 1%

"A second part of the above question was, "Do you feel that proceeds from the Lemon Grove sales tax should only be used in and for Lemon Grove?"

THE PERCENTAGES ANSWERING YES AND NO WERE:

Yes 70%
No 28%
No opinion 2%

"The fourth question asked was, "Do you think that Spring Valley and Lemon Grove together would make a good city? (in other words do you favor incorporation?)

THE PERCENTAGES ANSWERING YES AND NO WERE:

Yes 58%
No 39%
No opinion 3%

With this question the majority of those polled said they favored incorporation, but thought that Lemon Grove should remain by itself.

Youthful Autoists Threaten Teacher

Carol Isabel Casper of 1234 El Kelton blvd., S.V., a teacher at Castle Park Jr. High school told sheriff's deputies that her car was forced off the road by three unidentified youths as she was returning home late Sunday.

She said the car followed her after a near collision on College ave. a short time before. After being forced off the road on Sweetwater rd. near Blossom lane, the youths ordered her out of the car, pinned her arm behind her back and stuck an 8-inch hunting knife against her ribs saying, "this will teach you to cut people off."

MIGUEL PLAY ABOUT 'DEAD' SON'S RETURN

To learn that a son, presumed dead for three years, is returning home should be cause for joyful emotions; why, then, was the Benson family disappointed?

This is the plot of the current Mt. Miguel ASB play, The Death and Life of Larry Benson, being produced Feb. 27, 28 and March 3 at 8 p.m. in the school's cafetorium. The play will also be repeated on March 10 as a benefit for Miguel's American Field Service program.

KENNING HONOR STUDENT

Wendy Kenning of 2222 Debco dr., Lemon Grove is listed as an honor scholarship student at California Baptist College at Riverside, Calif., in a news release from that school.

School Vacation Decision Held Over By Board

The Lemon Grove school board couldn't quite decide whether the cheese went on the bottom of the top patty, so to speak, when they contemplated next year's school calendar at the board's regular meeting Monday at San Altos school.

There will be 177 teaching days with school starting Sept. 11 and finishing June 3. Undecided was the Christmas holidays schedule. Should it be two full weeks to match the high school schedule, or should the holiday be two weeks but starting and stopping mid-week. The board, one member short, decided to wait for a full attendance before deciding.

A list of officials who will serve in the April 10 over-ride election was approved by the board. An information organization will handle the distribution of a fact sheet, the board was told.

The board, which had been meeting at various schools in the district in order to show area residents how the board works, returns to the Education Center for its next meeting March 12.

Campaign To Teach 'Rescue Breathing' Starts Here

The Mt. Helix Council of the California Council of Parent-Teachers, has been selected by the latter group for "Pilot Project In Rescue Breathing."

Mrs. Andrew C. Olson, health and welfare chairman for the Council said that because of the increase in swimming pools the chance and incidence of drownings increase too.

The project seeks to promote mouth-to-mouth resuscitation as a method that can be used immediately by anyone to save someone in the process of drowning or suffocating.

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District and Lemon Grove Schools sanction the plan to promote rescue breathing. The 21 PTA units in the Mt. Helix Council are making contributions toward the program.

One of the first steps in the project, Mrs. Olson pointed out is obtaining a film entitled "That They May Live." And money from Vista La Mesa Elementary, the first PTA to contribute is going toward purchase of this film.

Any individuals or groups wishing to donate to the rescue breathing project are requested to send contributions to Mrs. John McGee, president of the Mt. Helix Council. She lives at 3405 Valley View, S.V., and her phone is HO 3-0351.

FIRST DONATION — Mrs. Maurice Koenekamp (left) president of the Vista La Mesa PTA, who lives at 3882 Carancho st., L. G. gives a check to Mrs. Andrew C. Olson, 3885 Capitol st., L.G., health and welfare chairman of the Mt. Helix Council, CCPT. The money is the first contributed toward the Council's "Pilot Project In Rescue Breathing," which is for the purpose of teaching people of the area about using mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to save those drowning or suffocating.

The San Diego Medical Society of Anesthesiologists, the Department of Public Health and American Red Cross are some of the well-known organizations backing the rescue breathing teaching project, which, it is expected, will immediately cut down on loss of life from drowning and suffocation.

L.G. COUNCIL AWARDS CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION FOR TUMBLEWEED COVERAGE

Yours truly received a certificate of appreciation from the Lemon Grove Coordinating Council for contributing to the welfare of the community through news coverage of the anti-tumbleweed drive.

I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the Council for thanking me, and to assure the Council that my interest in getting rid of tumbleweeds has not waned.

Anti-tumbleweed chairman Hibbard Stubbs is planning another Saturday "T" Day soon for the Grove. He's expecting a bigger turnout of tumbleweed battlers than ever.

Everyone around here knows Stubbs. And there's good reason. He's Lemon Grove Civil Defense chairman, commander of the L.G. VFW and a volunteer fireman.

ATTENTION, TWISTERS! LET'S SEE YOU DO THE "DOUBLE TWIST!"

Those who think the "twist" is something new, have some news coming, according to an item in a Los Angeles newspaper lately.

This item brings to light a 1908 Jellyroll Morton record on which pioneer jazzman Tony Jackson does the following rollicking lyric:

"Mama, Mama, take a look at Sis.
"She's out on the levee doing the double twist.
Come in here you dirty little sow,
You tryin' to be a bad girl and you don't know how!"

No one wants to promote the song, I'm sure. But in 1908 they danced a "double twist," whereas we have only the twist.

Someone might check back and see if the chiropractic business was especially good in that period.

'A Bunch of the Boys...'

SPENDS SOCIAL EVENING IN NEIGHBORHOOD BAR

A social evening at the Spin Inn, 3645 Imperial ave., L.G. spent drinking, suddenly filled Morris Paul Hance, 40, 7872 North Ave., L.G. with Dutch courage about 9 p.m.

According to the bartender Earl Broderdof, Hance suddenly grabbed a bar stool and threatened other patrons. The bartender was in the kitchen when he heard the sound of a fallen body and returned to find Hance on the floor with a cut lip and blood on his face, although he had not witnessed an actual fight.

According to a witness Robert E. Perrine of the Sportsman's Club in L.G., Hance had begun to argue and at one time slapped his girl friend. He started an argument with a group of men who walked away from him, but he followed and attempted to hit one of them. At this point, one of them gave Hance "the back of his hand," leaving the victim out cold on the floor. Hance was taken to Grossmont hospital, treated for a sprained finger and a deep cut on his left upper lip and released. Hance said he would prosecute.

ARTICLE IN ERROR

An article appearing in this newspaper Feb. 8 erroneously reported that Lynn Chenowth of highway 94, Spring Valley, was one of eight youths involved in the stripping of a Corvette in Lawson Valley and that he was picked up with the other youths. The article appeared under a heading of 'Corvette Strippers Found."

Chenowth was not involved in the commission of this crime, and was not apprehended or held.

CLAIMS CHILDREN SNATCHED

An estranged husband Victor Paul Mudrack of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, is alleged to have wrested by force from his divorced wife, Norma Joan Mudrack, her two children, Stanley Ralph, 3, and Theresa Jean, 18 months, at 2:30 p.m. Feb. 18, while she and a friend were walking along Quarry road, Spring Valley, near the Sweetwater arena.

Mrs. Mudrack alleges that her husband drove alongside of them in a car, out of which jumped two women, her sisters-in-law, Geraldine Mudrack, 22 and Alice Massey Mudrack, 30, who seized the boy and jerked the baby from the arms of her friend, Mrs. Richard E. Corson and drove off.

It was a retaliatory measure for her taking the two children from his home in Indiana, where he had taken the children before the custody commitment had been issued in her favor by the San Diego court, Mrs. Mudrack alleges. The children had been placed by the court in her custody and she has a restraining order against her husband, Mrs. Mudrack claims.

NEEDLE-MARKS ADD TO DRIVER'S WOES

A San Diego man, Anthony Batista, of 952 Catalina blvd., picked up in Lemon Grove last week on Tuesday because his companion, a 17-year-old L.G. girl looked like the missing Lancaster baby-sitter, is in toils of the law. He is charged with curfew law violation but he is also in a jam for possessing no driver's license of his own after showing officers one belonging to someone else. He admitted that he is on bail on a narcotics arrest but denied he was using the "stuff" now. A medical examination, the sheriff's report stated, disclosed that several of the many needle marks on his arm were not more than three days old.

Sheriff's deputies made the pick-up at Broadway and Imperial following an all-units order after the Lancaster girl, later found dead in the desert, had been reported seen in Lemon Grove.

PEDESTRIAN SIGN FOUND

Found in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Velma Stacey, 1215 El Kelton blvd., S.V., a yellow sign eight feet high, worded "Pedestrian Crossing." It was found by her son.

BIKE STOLEN

Harold A. Schmidt reported that his son's bicycle was taken from his home at 3765 Fenwick dr., S.V. The bike is a 28" Dayton heavy duty black with chrome fenders worth $55.

ASH TRAYS TAKEN

Mrs. La Nelle Gardner of 9439 Alto dr., L.G., owner of the Econ-o-Wash at 9717 Campo, S.V. said that ash-tray stands have been removed from the building during night time hours.

FAST DRAW

A S.D. man, Richard Gordon Tenfel, who was spending a pleasant afternoon Saturday on Dictionary Hill practicing "fast draw" was faster than he thought possible. He shot himself in the right leg. A friend took him to Grossmont hospital.

S.D. Newspaper Charged In $100,000 Suit

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — A charge of "harrassing and interfering" with the business of publishers of three South Bay newspapers was the basis for a suit for $100,000 filed in Superior Court last week against a former employee of the newspapers and against the S.D. Independent.

Lowell Blankfort and Rowland K. Rebele, co-owners of the Star News Publishing Co., are the plaintiffs in the action. They are publishers of the Chula Vista Star-News, the National City Star-News and the Imperial Beach Star-News.

In addition to the Independent, which publishes newspapers for four sections of the San Diego metropolitan area, Edwin A. Botsford is a defendant.

The suit charges that Botsford, once an employe of the Star-News and a stockholder of the company that sold out in May, 1961 to Blankfort and Rebele, is selling advertising for the Independent in violation of an agreement "not to compete in any newspaper business" for the next five years.

Botsford was one of seven stockholders in the South Bay Publishing Co., which was bought out by Blankfort and Rebele. The major stockholder was Mrs. Ray Coyle, widow of the late Ray Coyle, publisher of the three papers for a number of years.

The suit charges that Botsford has solicited advertising on behalf of the Independent from customers he gained during his employment with the three South Bay newspapers.

The Independent is accused in the suit of "enticing" Botsford to work on its advertising staff in violation of his agreement. The action charges that officials of the Independent did this to "harraass, annoy, persecute, injure, destroy and otherwise interfere" with the business of Blankfort and Rebele.

OPEN HOUSING CONFERENCE OPENS MARCH 3 IN EL CAJON

Morris Milgram, nationally-known builder of inter-racial housing developments, will be keynote speaker for an Open Housing Conference, Saturday, March 3, at El Cajon Valley high school, 1035 Madison ave., El Cajon.

More than 500 persons from throughout California have been invited to the conference, sponsored by the El Cajon Valley Open Housing Committee.

Milgram, who will discuss "Open Housing and the Bill of Rights," is president of Modern Community Developers. During the last 10 years, he has built open occupancy residential communities throughout Eastern U.S.A. All have been completed and sold, a majority to Caucasians.

Featured in the morning session of the Conference, which begins at 9 a.m. will be a panel discussing "Equality of Opportunity in Housing-A Growing Reality?" The speakers will comment on the background of the racial myth, the American scene — conflict and promise, housing as the key to desegregation, the future of housing and open housing—good politics or bad.

The afternoon program will be devoted to workshops: education, local legislation, economics of housing, cooperative group relationships, referral services, public relations, open housing covenants, and direct action.

The purposes of the Open Housing Conference, according to Robert W. Smith, vice chairman, are to focus the attention of the community on the problems of discrimination in housing, to obtain and disseminate information on the activities of open housing groups, and to encourage the formation of similar committees throughout San Diego County.

Registrations for the conference can be made through Tony diMeglio, 1271 Marline ave., El Cajon, AT 3-5181.

EIGHTH GRADE GIRLS PROVIDE STYLE SHOW

Students of Miss Janice Copeland's homemaking classes at Lemon Grove Junior High staged their annual fashion show on Tuesday evening. Using the theme, "World's Fair," the eighth grade girls modeled creations they designed and made during the first semester.

Also displayed were other samples of needlework mastered by the students. Decorations for the night featured the needle and other "tools of the trade" used by expert seamstresses. Miss Copeland stated that clothes and other articles made by the young teenagers demonstrated outstanding ability and fine taste.

Sermon On 'Christ Jesus' Stresses Healing Ministry

Value to all mankind of the healing ministry of the Master will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday, in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus."

Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the man with the dropsy will be included in the Bible selections, "There was a certain man before him which had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go" (14:2-4).

These affirmations by Mary Baker Eddy are from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible. The only way to this living Truth, which heals the sick, is found in the Science of divine Mind as taught and demonstrated by Christ Jesus" (p. 180).

Congolese Hanky-Panky Costly

Lt. Col. Hulen Stogner, a 39-year-old assistant military attache of the U. S. Embassy in Leopoldville, who has a wife and six children in El Paso, was shot through the head and killed a few days ago while sharing a bedroom in his house in the Congo with Miss Elizabeth Thring of Washington, D.C.

Tropical hanky-panky may be fun but if our state department boys and girls could keep their minds on the equally important job they are chosen to do, the Congo might not be the messed-up, unhappy place it has become since Washington decided to enlighten the Congolese masses.

Grove Lady, Bob Hope Share Parade Magazine Spotlight

Mrs. Mildred Rosequist Brod of 1475 San Altos pl., Lemon Grove appeared with comedian Bob Hope in a Sunday, Feb. 25 writeup in Parade magazine, a national publication.

The writeup said that Mrs. Brod "went and worked with" Hope in Cleveland almost 40 years ago. Two pictures were in Parade—one in which both were young, and one taken recently when Mrs. Brod visited Hollywood. The young Miss Rosequist, the article stated was Hope's first fiancee and dancing partner.

In a phone conversation this week Mrs. Brod said she belongs to a San Diego bridge club and is looking for a garden club to join. Mrs. Brod said she knew that the Parade article was to appear but that she isn't interested in further publicity. She added that she and husband John, are renting the San Altos house and would probably move soon into their own home.

Sonka Kin Passes

Services Held For Mrs. McLean

Private funeral services were held last week for Mrs. Josephine McLean, 69, of 2351 Loma dr., Lemon Grove who died Feb. 17 in Grossmont hospital after a short illness.

Her death followed that of her husband, Harold S., a retired rancher, by four months.

Mrs. McLean, a member of the well-known Sonka family, came to Lemon Grove in 1908 from Texas. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Kezar of 3048 Cypress, L.G. and Mrs. Maxine Erwin, of Cottage Grove, Oregon; two brothers, A. F. (Tony) and Edwin P. Sonka; two sisters, Clara Sonka and Lee J. Thompson, these of Lemon Grove, and three grandchildren.

S.V. SEWER OUTFALL BIDS TO BE LET

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Advertising for bids for the proposed Spring Valley sewer outfall line down Sweetwater Valley was authorized Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

Bids are to be awarded in May, and the project is to be completed by early 1963.

How many people, all told, have lived on this earth? About 77 billion, estimates the Population Reference Bureau.

LG Firemen Make Usual Runs; Wait For 'T' Day Climate

The Lemon Grove fire department week included small fires, resuscitator cases and concern over the fact the local tumbleweed campaign has been held in abeyance by the wet weather, according to Fire Chief H. L. Hensley.

Damage amounting to $150 occurred at 4 a.m., Feb. 20 when a pot of beans caught fire on a stove in the B. F. Crane home, 2127 Glenco. Fire Chief Hensley said damage was mostly from smoke.

A faulty heater installation let a wall panel catch fire in the Don Evenson residence, 1602 Svea ct., at 1:16 a.m. on Feb. 26. Fire caused $50 damage.

Two fire department resuscitator cases occurred in the past week. On Feb. 19 Edna Hamlin, 2106 Bonita was taken to Grossmont hospital, and on Feb. 26 Carl Scott, 3465 Vista was taken to Naval hospital. Both were administered oxygen.

Chief Hensley said that it has rained so much, some of the piles of tumbleweeds accumulated in the first "T" Day in the Grove which was Jan. 20 still haven't been burned by the fire department.

Fire marshal Ray Carmody said that as soon as it dries sufficiently, Lemon Grove will continue with the anti-tumbleweed program.

Ogden; fouth vice president (publicity) Mrs. Keith Jennings; recording secretary, Mrs. E. W. Smith; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Doug Giles; treasurer, Mr. Jerry Weiss; historian, Mrs. Louise Trimmer, and auditor, Mr. S. Yamashita.

At a Feb. 20 meeting the board voted to endorse the special June 10 tax election to prevent further cuts in the district's school program.

Report Misleading

nor have they ever been willing, to sell to S.D. Imperial," Davis said.

S. D. Imperial acquired 255 shares, nevertheless, Davis explained, by persuading four Southland stockholders to trade for Imperial stock. These stockholders each held one share jointly with their wives thus making up the "eight stockholders" who joined in the suit against Southland.

Davis said that last year he decided to retire after 50 years in the banking and savings and loan management. He was succeeded by Harry Holthusen, Southland's executive vice president.

Davis founded Southland in 1946 with a capital of only $60,000. Today, it has assets of over $34 millions and maintains three branches, including one in L.G.

The sale, consummated Nov. 3, 1961 for an undisclosed sum, included a mortgage brokerage firm and an insurance firm in both of which Davis was major stockholder, and 88.4 per cent of Southland stock. Kidder, Peabody formed South State Financial Corp., with its own executives as officers and directors, to make the purchase which included 1,945 shares of Southland as well as all the stock in the other two firms controlled by Davis.

DAVIS REFUTES SUIT

"There has been no exchange of stock as alleged in this nuisance suit brought by S.D. Imperial, nor have any officers or directors of Southland Savings ever attempted or intended to make an exchange of stock. The sale was for cash,," Davis stated.

Davis said that none of his people had been served with any papers in connection with the Imperial "damage suit" nor had been furnished with a copy of any complaint filed.

There has been no change in management or operations at Southland since the sale, Davis pointed out. The firm is recognized as one of the strongest savings and loan associations in S.D. county.

All deposits up to $10,000 at Southland are insured by F.D.I.C., an agency of the Federal Government.

The controversy centers around stock holding of 11.6 per cent and does not affect the soundness or management of Southland.

PROPERTY OWNERS MUST PAY FOR DRAINAGE

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — A Lemon Grove woman who complained that the county dug up the alley behind her property many years ago and never came back to fix the ditch was told Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors that she will have to pay for any drainage work in her area.

Mrs. Mary Rojas, of 7637 Lemon ave., appeared before Supervisors on Jan. 23 to ask what had happened about the work on her alley that the county had started 19 years before and never come back to finish.

Recommendation was that Mrs. Rojas join with neighbors to form a drainage district "for the purpose of improving this channel."

Nothing was said about who started it all 19 years earlier.

Theatre Burglars Get CYA Sentences

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Confinement at the California Youth Authority was ordered Friday in Superior Court for two Lemon Grove youths who admitted burglary of the Grove theatre netting $8.72.
